Governor West will take up the problem of the unemployed with the employment bureau in Portland, and, as a preliminary thereto, this morning Miss Hobbs went to Portland to consult with Mayor Albion and the board, as to methods of handling the work. It is proposed to have the newspapers assist in the matter, but details have not yet been worked out. So soon as Miss Hobbs returns the matter will be taken up and plans perfected.

Miss Ruth Engle and brother, Fred, left this morning for Portland, where they will spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

Attorney Overton, of Woodburn, is in the city today on business.

A complaint to recover $50,579 on the grounds of personal injury was filed in the circuit court this morning by R. C. Freeman against the Hammond Lumber Co. The complaint alleges that the plaintiff was employed as a timber-faller for the defendant company, and that by reason of a saw-tooth breaking, and flying through the air and striking him in the right eye, he has lost all use of the optic.

Secretary Bynon, of the Commercial Club, is today sending out six samples of dried loganberries to the Great Northern Railway Co. The railroad has used the Salem fruit before and is now asking for further information regarding the product. The dining car patrons of the Great Northern are pleased with the dried loganberries and the company may install the fruit as a regular feature hereafter.

Joe Smith and W. McKenzie were sentenced to 30 days in the county jail this morning by Justice of the Peace Webster on the charge of larceny from a building. The two men called at the Brown lodging house on South Commercial street yesterday afternoon and applied for a job putting in wood. While they were waiting for final instructions they picked up a pair of shoes and sneaked out. Chief of Police Sholeck and Officer Welch located the pair near the Yew Park school and upon searching them, found the footwear. Smith and McKenzie pleaded guilty to the charge which was brought in a complaint sworn to by Rudolph Erickson, the owner of the shoes.

A big time was held in the Moose club last night by members and visitors. Prior to a fine banquet given, a boxing exhibition was staged by Salem's lightweights, Dick Madison and Duke Hirschberg. The decision in this scrap was close and the spectators were given a real treat in the way of nifty notions and curves of the expert fighting man.

SWISS GIRLS WHO CAME TO WED, GO TO CALIFORNIA.

[UNITED PRESS LEADS WIRE.]
Albany, Or., Nov. 26.—Cecile Diethelm and Hulda Krauer, the two Swiss girls who refused to marry the two Albany men they came seven thousand miles to wed, left Albany today for San Jose, California, where an uncle of Miss Diethelm resides.

Kasper Wirz and Herman Young, the two men who figured in the uncompleted romance, paid their fare to San Jose and gave each of them $50 besides. Thus was a case which has attracted great attention compromised today.

This compromise came following the visit of Raphael P. Bonham, a federal immigration officer, to Albany.

Following the rules of his department, Inspector Bonham refused to make any statement whatever regarding the matter further than to admit that his mission here was to investigate the case of the Swiss girls.

LOTS OF INTERESTING I. W. W. LITERATURE

In the governor's office there is a display of "Literature" captured at Florence when the I. W. W. bunch, acting on the invitation of the citizens of that place, abandoned it to its fate. Some of the stuff might be classed as "wild and wooly," as a few samples will show. Among the stuff is a placard reading: "Only the dead ones go to Heaven; Hell for ours." Another is a large picture of the Saviour, over which in big letters is the label: "Fellow Worker Jesus." Under this picture is the line: "The First Hobo."

On the picture is pinned the badge of the order and a red ribbon bow. Another placard reads: "Might Is Right. To Gain This Right You Must Unite."

Another placard has a picture of a tramp with a bundle on his back walking in this sentiment:

"He built the road, with others of his class, he built the road, Now o'er it many a weary mile he packs his load, Chasing a job. Spurred on by Hunger's goad He walks, and walk, and walks and walks, And wonders why in Hell he built the road."

There is lots more along the same line, but this will do to convey an idea of the style of literature common to the bunch, and give an idea also of the style of argument presented by the I. W. W. leaders in reaching after converts.

PLANT COMPLETELY TIED UP.
[UNITED PRESS LEADS WIRE.]
Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Two thousand strikers crowded about the gates of the General Electric company's plant here today and stopped workers who sought to resume operations. The women strikers were the most active among the pickets. They were led by Miss Jennie Tredeau.

It was estimated that 15,000 workers went out, forcing the shops to remain closed today. The American Federation of Labor, it was said today, has not sanctioned the strike, as the shops are only partly unionized.

May Have Ordered It.
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 26.—Vice-President J. P. Newman, of the electrical workers' union, was unable to say here today whether the American Federation of Labor had sanctioned the strike of the employees of the General Electric company at Schenectady.

"It is possible," said Vice-President Newman, "that the strike was authorized during the recent labor convention in Seattle. But in the absence of the president of our union, F. J. McNulty, who is still in Seattle, attending the convention of the Building Trades Council, I am not at liberty to say. Officials of our union in Seattle may be ready to issue a statement."
